

GENEROSITY EMBODIED BY TWO SISTERS

THE SPIRIT OF GIVING

Christi Murray of 1-800-Textiles (pictured right) and her sister, Dana Bryant, recently joined forces to provide Thanksgiving food boxes for Salvation Army in Bainbridge, GA.

They leveraged social media to involve the community in purchasing and packaging items for the food boxes, making it accessible for everyone.

The community's response was overwhelming, resulting in 100+ boxes for the Salvation Army and additional support for a local organization.

"Both Christi and Dana believe their employment in service industries really falls under the ministry category," according to an article posted on BainbridgeGa.com.

The sisters share a deep love for their community and helping people in need. "Christi and Dana agree when you feel the nudge, it is time to take action."

